

Join a community of international educators teaching and learning in the U.S. with the Visiting International Faculty Program (VIF).

VIF, the United States' largest cultural exchange program for teachers and schools, is an excellent opportunity for you to secure your first international teaching position. As a VIF Program participant, you'll receive a U.S. teaching license and a full-time classroom teaching position for up to three years. Build your international teaching portfolio with the experience and professional development you gain as a VIF teacher.

Get started today!

Check your eligibility by visiting <http://www.vifprogram.com/apply/us/eligibility.html>

The VIF Program Offers

Competitive Salary

- * Highly competitive full-time salaries determined by experience and education level
- * Comprehensive health insurance for you and your family

International Credential Evaluation

- * Evaluation of credentials leading to U.S. teacher licensure

Comprehensive Support

- * Peer teacher support and mentoring
- * Comprehensive teacher orientation upon arrival in the USA
- * 24-hour emergency support
- * Ongoing professional development
- * Discounted tuition for select university master's degree programs

Relocation Assistance during 3-Year stay in USA

- * Round-trip transportation for your first year
- * Interest-free relocation loan
- * Visa sponsorship (J-1 visa)
- * J-2 visa for your spouse and visitor visas for your children

VIF conducts in-person interviews with interested teachers around the world. Complete the online application to apply and secure your interview with a VIF staff member.

<http://www.vifprogram.com/apply/us/eligibility.html>